ABOUT ARNAV

Arnav Dayal's key areas of expertise are mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and private equity investments. He regularly advises on structuring investments and strategic issues in joint ventures.

He also routinely acts for several financial investors, multinational corporations and institutions and Indian entities in diversified businesses, including those in renewable energy, oil and gas, conventional power, e-commerce, telecommunications, technology, manufacturing, retail trading, insurance and defence.

Arnav has acted on some of the largest M&A deals in the Indian renewable energy / decarbonization space, including Actis' sale of its renewable energy platforms, Sprng Energy (to Shell) and Ostro Energy (to ReNew Power). He was also recently involved in assisting Serentica Renewables in setting up a renewable energy platform having a focus on C&I / decarbonization projects, with a USD 400 million commitment from KKR – one of the largest investments till date in this space.
