

Major Ranjeet Goswami, Retd. is the Global Head of Corporate Affairs at TATA Consultancy Services Ltd (TCS), responsible for managing Government Relations and Public Policy for TCS globally.

Ranjeet has a diverse experience of more than 27 years, extending from Defence & Homeland Security to e-Governance & Public Policy. Ranjeet earlier as part of Government of India and later as part of industry has contributed to various policy initiatives. In the past, he has held the Co- Chair of FICCI IT Committee, Vice Chairperson for IFFCI Technology Committee, convened study groups on Standards with Bureau of Indian Standards and has been an active member of CII Trade Committee in India.

Ranjeet during his service in the army has performed various strategic and operational duties. His experience ranges from active deployment to being an Army Aide to the Governor. In addition to multiple operational & service medals, Ranjeet is also a recipient of Governor's appreciation for his contribution to the state of Mizoram.

Ranjeet Goswami is a graduate in Psychology from Maharaja's College, Jaipur and later studied Business Management at Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore. He is an alumnus of Indian Military Academy, Dehradun, and IIM-B. At leisure, Ranjeet enjoys writing on social and interpersonal topics.

About TCS

TATA Consultancy Services Ltd. is a world-leading information technology consulting, services, and business process organization. A pioneer in many fields, TCS is a US $ 25.7 billion organization and has presence in 46 countries. With close to 600,000 highly trained IT consultants, TCS' workforce represents 155 nationalities, including 200,000 plus women employees.